Unbind and Set Free
Vision Statement

St John’s College is a Catholic learning community established by the Good Samaritan Sisters in the Benedictine Tradition.

In a spirit of faith, hope and love, we strive to develop confident, reflective and compassionate young people who are committed to transforming our world through example, service and leadership.

College History

The College is the oldest independent secondary school on the Sunshine Coast and was established by the Good Samaritan Sisters on February 1st, 1940. Originally known as St Joseph’s, it was a boarding and day school comprised of eight students, both male and female. The school was based at the Good Samaritan Sisters’ convent in Currie Street, Nambour. From 1943 to 1979 it was predominately a girls’ secondary school. To cater for the Sunshine Coast’s increasing populace, the school was relocated to Perwillowen Road in 1979 with a class of 100 students consisting of both boys and girls.

The College was renamed St John’s in 1985 to distinguish it from St Joseph’s Primary School in Nambour. From the first Principal (Sr Mary Kostka) to the current (Mr Chris Gold), there has always been an emphasis on caring and educating Sunshine Coast’s young people. In 1977, BCE assumed governance of the College.

At the start of 1979, the College relocated to the present site on Perwillowen Road, Nambour for students in Years 8 to 10. With 11 staff and 99 students, only 23 of whom were boys, the College was officially opened at this site on March 21st, 1979. In 1985, the school was renamed St John’s College and embraced the motto “Unbind and Set Free”, a scriptural verse taken from St John’s Gospel, chapter 11, verse 44. This motto has remained at the centre of our spirituality at St John’s, along with the story of the Good Samaritan taken from the Gospel of Luke. In recent times, our prayer life has been enriched by the writings of our patron saint, St John the Evangelist, the rule of St Benedict and the values of the Good Samaritan Sisters, a true testament to our diverse and rich spiritual history.

Our College Prayer

As one, we pray that God's love and the Good Samaritan values live and thrive in our staff, our students, our parents and our friends.

Help us to walk as people of welcome.

Help us to listen with the ear of the heart.

Help us to go and be neighbour to all.

May our hearts be moved with compassion to commit ourselves to others.

May our actions be as one Catholic community.

May our minds be filled with the wisdom of deep learning.

And in the spirit of faith, hope and love, we continue on our journey to Unbind and Set Free.

Amen.
